Jenkins Principal, Public School 3 Borough of Manhattan The City of New York Dear Sir, I must apologize for troubling you at your busiest time, but a desirable position has been promised me on the 15th inst. if I can get a satisfactory letter of recommendation from the principal of the school I last attended. As you complimented me on my record last June at the time you promoted me to the 7A grade, I feel sure that you will be kind enough to write the letter I need. I take advantage of this opportunity to thank you and the teachers for all you have done for me. With feelings of regret that I am no longer under your direction,...
