Excerpt: . . . at the moment, when their flag ship, the Columbus, gave our Columbia a distinguished, and, I thought, touching reception; the crew manned the yards, cheered, and then the band played, first God Save the Queen, and then Yankee Doodle. I spent altogether, at two different intervals, about a month in Boston. I look back with fond recollection to its well-built streets--the swelling dome of its State-House--the pleasant walks on what is termed the common--a park, in fact, of moderate size, in the centre of the city, where I made my first acquaintance with the bright winter sunsets of America, and the peculiar transparent green and opal tints which stripe the skies around them--the long wooden causeways across the inner harbor, which rather recalled St. Petersburgh to my recollection--the newly-erected granite obelisk on a neighboring height, which certainly had no affinity with St. Petersburgh, as...
