The barometer had been slowly but persistently falling during the two previous days; the dawn had been red and threatening, with a strong breeze from S. E. ; and as the short dreary November day waxed and waned this strong breeze had steadily increased in strength until by nightfall it had become a regular November gale, with frequent squalls of arrowy rain and sleet, which, impelled by the furious gusts, smote and stung like hail, and cleared the streets almost as effectually as a volley of musketry would have done. It was not fit for a dog to be out of doors. So said Ned Anger as he entered the snug bar-parlour of the Anchor at Brightlingsea, and drawing a chair close up to the blazing fire of wreck-wood which roared up the ample chimney, flung himself heavily down thereon to await the arrival of the pint which he had ordered as he passed the bar. And yet there's a many poor souls as has to be out in it, and as is out in...
