CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 202 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 5.9in. x 0.6in. We are on the wrong track. Polls show that more and more Americans, Europeans and others worry about the future of their countries. The media regularly report on what effects these opinions may have on the next elections. They briefly discuss their favorite political issues and quickly switch to another news story. Nobody talks about the track Who built this track Where does it originate What is the destination What happens when we get there Are there any other tracks Is there a right track The wrong track we are on is actually a large network of tracks. This complex system was deliberately designed and built over many decades. The lines of this matrix originated in different times and different places, but they are all heading to the same final destination: to the destruction of capitalism, to the destruction of America, and finally, to the total collapse of Western Civilization. Most of the passengers bought their tickets with the help of government subsidies. Many of them are riding for free. Very few of them know where we are...
