Excerpt from Official Report of the Fifth Universal Peace Congress: Held at Chicago, United States of America, August 14 to 20, 1893, Under the Auspices of the World's Congress Auxiliary of the World's Columbian Exposition Publications containing these and other announcements were also sent by the Government of the United States to other nations. These subjects were thoroughly set forth in the preliminary address issued by the Committee of Organization in charge of the Congress. The Congress therefore convenes with a fixed and definite purpose and all the peace societies of America, and of other countries, have been cordially invited to unite in the work for which we have assembled. In the nature of things government is power and must have authority to protect itself and its subjects against internal disorders and external foes. By the establishment of a universal reign of peace we do not mean the abdication of government, but the substitution of the dominion of law for the dominion of force, of moral for physical power. As in private life the courts of...
