INTRODUCTION.--DESIGN OF THE WORK. WHEN we look round about us with an attentive eye, and consider the characters and pursuits of men, we plainly see, that though m the original constitutim. of their nature, they only, of all the creatures that dwell on the face of the earth, are capable of religion, yet many of them shamefully neglect it. And whatever different notions people may entertain of what they call religion, all must agree in owning, that it is very far from being a universal thing. Religion, in its most general view, is such a sense of Cod on the soul, and such a conviction of our obligations to him, and of our dependence upon him, as shall engage us to...
