Teacher of heresy has ever been able to work. Christ not only wrought miracles, but enabled His Apostles to work them; and some miracles (Irenaeus says) were still performed by the power of Christ in the Church, and in the Church alone (c. 67). In his Preface to the Third Book, Irenaeus says that in the two former he had displayed the succession of Heretics from Simon Magus, and their doctrines, and he will now proceed to show from Holy Scripture that their doctrines are repugnant to that one, true, life-giving Faith which the Church has received from the Apostles, and they from Christ, and which she delivers to her children. He then says, We have not received the dispensation of our salvation from any others...
