Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 84 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.5in. x 0.2in. Sabrina Wright reveals some of her experiences and personal challenges of walking in God's shadow. She hopes to show others how they can overcome everyday struggles to find comfort and peace in God Almighty and with those in their lives. Readers will parallel some of their own life struggles with those apparent in this book. Sabrina shares biblical truths that she has learned that will help anyone through a time of struggle. She has learned to praise the Lord through the storms and after the storms as God has delivered her through them. There is an excitement of victory that is apparent in this story of experiencing God and His wonderful will for us. Sabrina talks about how experiences of unfair expectations, un-acceptance and having things out of Godly focus can keep us from staying in the peace and protection of God's shadow. She explains how following God's commandments, reading His word, and being in prayer can help to ease the burden of everyday life situations. Sabrina Wright was raised in a Christian home in Wethersfield, NY. She has a Bachelor's Degree in Elementary Education and opened her own Christian preschool where many children have learned the basic truths of God's love and His many miracles. Sabrina is married to her husband Kevin. They have one child. Psalms 91: 1, 2 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
