Hudson, of Massachusetts: On the Portion of the President s Message Relating to the Mexican War The House, in Committee of the Whole, having under consideration the proposition to refer the President s Message to the different committees - Mr. Hudson addressed the House as follows: Mr. Chairman: I am fully aware of the charges which I shall draw down upon myself by expressing the views which I entertain upon the subject now before us. The President of the United States himself has set us the example of denouncing as traitors all those who dare to speak their minds upon this floor and in this country; and his flatterers here have followed his example. But, sir, none of these things move me. I look with equal indifference upon the denunciations of the President and of his flatterers on this floor. I will speak my sentiments here or elsewhere, and I will speak them freely. If I believe the Executive is wrong in any of his measures, I will make the declaration. If I believe he has usurped power, and trampled upon the Constitution of the United States, none of the denunciations or sarcasms of gentlemen on this floor will deter me from giving a full expression of my views and feelings. Nothing, I say, that the President can say or do, will deter me in any degree from a full and fair expression of my own opinions. Has it come to this, Mr. Chairman, that a President can arrogate to himself the war-making power, can trample the Constitution under foot, and wantonly involve the nation in war, and the people must...
